Sallie Albertina
Marriage Minister

Marriages are made in the real world, right here on Earth!

Marriages are not made in Heaven!

Marriages are made in the real world, right here on Earth!

When two people find that their hearts meet and a beautiful love evolves and grows between them, most often, there comes a time when they want to commit this love by exchanging vows in mind, body and spirit.

It is a very special time for a couple as they prepare for their Wedding Day and prepare to exchange their chosen vows making their commitment to each other. So, as a Spiritual Counselor and Minister it is my pleasure to give time to the couple to help them in this preparation for their own special ceremony of marriage.

When the day of the wedding arrives and the moment of the actual marriage ceremony commences, as the Minister conducting this ceremony, I am very aware that this expression of love is a very personal, intimate moment so it is a great honor and joy to perform this personal, unique ceremony for the couple in front of their witnesses, family and or friends.

My soul's desire is to know that a marriage ceremony I have performed will, not only unite two people together, but will create a solid foundation for them to travel life's path enabling them to navigate the valleys and relish the peaks so that their lifetime together, with all that it brings, will be the richest experience they have.

This is my counsel, this is my wedding gift to the couple.

In preparing and performing a ceremony of marriage for a couple who share a deep love, I draw on my many years of varied and extensive experience from knowing and working with people in all walks of life from all over the world.

I feel blessed that my own path has given me the beauty and awe of a profound spiritual awakening which, through synchronicity, has given me the gift to be an instrument to counsel and join together two hearts and two souls through the ceremony of marriage.

Our wedding day would not have been the same without the amazing and inspiring ceremony led by our Minister, Sallie Albertina. Her gentle and caring approach created an instant bond the moment we met, and her professional guidance allowed us to create our perfect vows and ceremony. Sallie took the time to get to know us and our families, and tailored the entire event from the rehearsal to the wedding day, to what we wanted to experience. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts Sallie.
